Delisting

It should be emphasized that the company's shares will have their last trading day on October 19, 2020, and they will be deleted from trading as of October 20, 2020. This means that as of October 20, 2020, the company's shares will no longer trade on a digital marketplace and thus there will no longer be a public pricing of the company's shares, which could make it more difficult to trade the company's shares. Furthermore, the company will be subject to changed and less extensive disclosure obligations. The rights of remaining shareholders will follow the Companies Act's rules for unlisted companies.

The main shareholder of the company has made a standing purchase order of 25 DKK per share in the market, which will be maintained up until October 19, 2020.
